TRIO — "UNEXPECTED DELIGHT!"

ALEXIS. ALLEGRO.

LANSKOI. (Seeing Alexis.)

ORSAKOFF.

PIANO FORTE.

Praseo . vie! Un . expected de . light!

The first system of the musical score features three vocal parts and a piano accompaniment. Alexis is in the upper voice, Lanskoï is in the middle voice, and Orsakoff is in the lower voice. The piano accompaniment is in the bass clef. The tempo is marked 'ALLEGRO' and the time signature is 2/4. The key signature has two sharps (F# and C#). The lyrics for Lanskoï are '(Seeing Alexis.)' and for Orsakoff are 'Praseo . vie! Un . expected de . light!'. The piano part includes dynamic markings 'f' and 'p'.

I shall die with af . fright! Can I trust to my sight?

fright! Can I trust to my sight?

The second system continues the vocal lines. Alexis sings 'I shall die with af . fright! Can I trust to my sight?'. Lanskoï sings 'fright! Can I trust to my sight?'. The piano accompaniment continues with a steady rhythmic pattern.

Can I trust to my sight? Has the mai . den re .

The third system shows Alexis singing 'Can I trust to my sight? Has the mai . den re .'. The piano accompaniment continues with a steady rhythmic pattern.

All es . cape is in vain! 'Tis my lo . ver a .

All es . cape is in vain! 'Tis the gen . ral a .

The fourth system shows Alexis singing 'All es . cape is in vain! 'Tis my lo . ver a .'. Lanskoï sings 'All es . cape is in vain! 'Tis the gen . ral a .'. The piano accompaniment continues with a steady rhythmic pattern.

. turn'd, Whom so long I have

The fifth system shows Alexis singing '. turn'd, Whom so long I have'. The piano accompaniment continues with a steady rhythmic pattern.

The first system of music features a vocal line in a soprano clef with a key signature of one flat and a common time signature. The lyrics 'me!) You may love.....' are written below the notes. The piano accompaniment consists of a right-hand part in a treble clef and a left-hand part in a bass clef, both in the same key and time signature. The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the right hand and a more active bass line in the left hand.

..... you may love, but si..... lent.

The second system continues the vocal line with the lyrics '..... you may love, but si..... lent.'. The piano accompaniment maintains its rhythmic pattern, with some harmonic changes in the right hand to support the vocal melody.

...ly. Love must all..... o.....

The third system shows the vocal line with the lyrics '...ly. Love must all..... o.....'. The piano accompaniment continues, with the right hand playing chords and moving lines that complement the vocal melody.

be... dience be!..... On a sweet face I'll free..ly be...

The fourth system contains the lyrics 'be... dience be!..... On a sweet face I'll free..ly be...'. A 'Cres:' marking is placed above the piano accompaniment in the right hand, indicating a crescendo. The piano part features a consistent eighth-note accompaniment.

...stow..... My fa..... your, For e..... ver!

The fifth system concludes the page with the lyrics '...stow..... My fa..... your, For e..... ver!'. The piano accompaniment continues with the same eighth-note accompaniment in the right hand and a supporting bass line in the left hand.

The first system of the musical score features a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line consists of two staves: the upper staff has lyrics 'pru dent be!' and the lower staff has lyrics 'us all o be dient be!'. Below the vocal lines is a piano accompaniment with two staves. The lyrics '(So you love none but me!)' are placed between the vocal staves. The piano accompaniment includes a right-hand part with chords and a left-hand part with a bass line.

The second system of the piano accompaniment shows the right-hand part with chords and the left-hand part with a bass line. The right-hand part features a series of chords, some with grace notes, and the left-hand part has a steady bass line.

The third system of the piano accompaniment continues the right-hand part with chords and the left-hand part with a bass line. The right-hand part has a similar chordal structure to the previous system, and the left-hand part maintains the bass line.

The fourth system of the piano accompaniment concludes the piece with a double bar line. The right-hand part has a final chord, and the left-hand part has a final bass note.

Introduction.

ALLEGRO

♩ = 132.

The first system of the Introduction consists of two staves. The treble staff begins with a piano (p) dynamic and a half note chord. The bass staff starts with a forte (f) dynamic and a series of chords. A hairpin crescendo (cr) is indicated above the treble staff. The system concludes with a piano (p) dynamic marking.

The second system continues the musical texture with similar rhythmic patterns and dynamic markings in both staves.

The third system features a more active treble staff with sixteenth-note patterns, while the bass staff maintains a steady accompaniment.

The fourth system shows a continuation of the sixteenth-note patterns in the treble staff, with the bass staff providing harmonic support.

The fifth system maintains the established musical motifs and dynamics.

The sixth system introduces a fortissimo (fz) dynamic in the treble staff, which then softens to piano (p). The bass staff continues with its accompaniment.

The seventh system concludes the Introduction with a 'Segue Chorus' marking. The treble staff has a melodic line, and the bass staff has a chordal accompaniment.
